

PROGRAM - Tablelands Clinical School Community Open Day

Tuesday, 8th July 2014

| TIME    | PRESENTATIONS                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|---------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|         | Middle FloorHealth Services and Community Groups Focus                                                                                                             | Top FloorAcademic and Research Focus                                                                                                                                                  |
| 10:00am | Introduction & Acknowledgement of Country - Associate Professor Phillip Braslins, Clinical Dean, Tablelands Clinical School                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 10:10am | Welcome & Opening Address - Professor Annabelle Duncan, UNE Vice Chancellor                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 10:15am | Outline of Day's Program - Associate Professor Phillip Braslins                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 10:20am | Facility Tour 1                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 10.50am | Morning tea                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 11:00am | Armidale Rural Referral Hospital (ARRH) Services- Ms Dona Withnell, General Manager                                                                         | Overview of the UNE/Coledale Student-led Clinic- Professor Cynthia Stuhlmiller, UNE School of Health                                                                           |
| 11:15am | School of Rural Medicine Volunteer Patient Program- Associate Professor John Nevin, School of Rural Medicine                                                | UNE/Coledale student-led clinic telehealth demonstration of students assessing live client using high visibility cameras.- Professor Cynthia Stuhlmiller, UNE School of Health |
| 11:30am | Ooralta Aboriginal Centre- Ms Ruth Lovelock, Ooralta Aboriginal Centre                                                                                      |                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 11:45am | Facility Tour 2                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 12:00pm | Mental health and wellbeing in the Tablelands- Mr Warren Isaac, Mental Health Clinical Nurse Consultant                                                     | Isometric handgrip resistance training for management of hypertension- Dr Debra Carlson, UNE School of Science and Technology                                                  |
| 12:15pm | The Men's Shed – "Spanner in the Works" health program- Mr Russell Glover                                                                                   | Isometric handgrip resistance training for people at risk or with cognitive impairment- Professor Neil Smart, UNE School of Science and Technology                             |
| 12:30pm | Drug &amp; Alcohol Rehabilitation in the Tablelands– Mr Adrian Webber, Freeman House                                                                        | Clinical Exercise Physiology – Research and Practice- Dr Kelly Clanchy, UNE School of Science and Technology                                                                   |
| 12:45pm | Facility Tour 3                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 1:00pm  | The Transitional Aged Care Program- Ms Wendy Colley, Armidale Community Health Centre                                                                       | UNE School of Rural Medicine Research Overview- Dr Stuart Wark, CRN for Mental Health and Wellbeing                                                                            |
| 1:15pm  | The Aged Care Emergency (ACE) Project, ARRH- Ms Mary Bennie, Aged Service Emergency Team Nurse                                                              | The importance of listening to people – Research around Suicide- Dr Kathryn McKay, CRN for Mental Health and Wellbeing                                                         |
| 1:30pm  | Case Management for older patients with complex care needs– Ms Narelle Marshall, Acute to Aged-Related Care Service Nurse, Armidale Rural Referral Hospital | Behavioural and structural risks associated with poor sexual health: South Africa and Australia- Dr Catherine MacPhail, CRN for Mental Health and Wellbeing                    |

| TIME   | PRESENTATIONS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|--------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|        | Middle FloorHealth Services and Community Groups Focus                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Top FloorAcademic and Research Focus                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 1:45pm | Facility Tour 4                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 2:00pm | Personally Controlled Electronic Health Records- Ms Marilyn Wood, Medicare Local New England                                                                                                                                                        | Working for Health and Wellbeing- Associate Professor Debra Dunstan, UNE School of Behavioural, Cognitive and Social Sciences                                                                      |
| 2:15pm | Eradicating Polio Worldwide- Ms Lorraine Coffey, Armidale Rotary Club                                                                                                                                                                               | What's in the Message?: Putting Science into Public Health Campaigns- Dr Navjot Bhullar, UNE School of Behavioural, Cognitive and Social Sciences                                                  |
| 2:30pm | Immunisation today and into the future- Dr Peter Massey, Hunter New England Population Health                                                                                                                                                       | Admission to the Joint Medical Program Community Engagement Program- Ms Maree Walsh, Academic Manager, School of Rural Medicine                                                                    |
| 2:45pm | Facility Tour 5                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 3:00pm | Acute Oncology services at Armidale Rural Referral Hospital- Ms Pam Pateman, Clinical Nurse Consultant, Armidale Rural Referral Hospital                                                                                                            | Remote monitoring of health – Smarter Safer Homes Project- Professor Stephen Winn, University of Southern Queensland                                                                               |
| 3:15pm | Support Services for cancer patients in the New England- Mr Paul Hobson, Community Programs Coordinator, Cancer Council NSW                                                                                                                         | Making a Difference “Live in the Country and get Urban Specialist Care”- Joy Bowles (PhD) BSc Hons                                                                                                 |
| 3:30pm | “A Hospital Bed at Home: Family stories of caregiving from diagnosis to death”- Dr Janene Carey, UNE School of Health                                                                                                                               | Point of care tests for the diagnosis of vaginitis: “Use of an Immunochromatographic Assay for Rapid Detection of Trichomonas vaginalis in Vaginal Specimens- Associate Professor Phillip Braslins |
| 3:45pm | Facility Tour 6                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| 4:00pm | Success stories:Aboriginal Mothers and Babies Program- Ms Maxine Ross, Armidale Community Health CentreSpeech clinics at Minimbah School improving access to children- Ms Helen Malcolm, Armidale Community Health Centre | Poster Session                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 5pm    | CLOSE                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

Other Activities: Free Blood Pressure checks by Medical Students

Tea, coffee and light refreshments provided and available during the day